MAUI BOND BILL

Land Commissioner Pratt sent in his answers to the series of questions regarding public lands propounded by Makekani. After the communication had been read Makekani moved that it be referred to the Printing Committee so that each Senator could have a copy.

Coelho said it was no use to do this as the time was too short to do any legislation in.

Makekani's motion carried.

House Bill 223, limiting the time in which damage suits could be instituted; House Bill 196, regulating and promoting the transportation of fresh fruit to the mainland; passed first reading.

WALLACH RESOLUTION.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 12, condemning the Board of Health for not allowing Wallach to try his suits on his wards, and resolving that the next Legislature should take the matter up, came up. Lane moved to adopt the resolution.

"I move to refer it to the Health Committee," said Smith. "I think there are some things in it which are unnecessary. There was certainly nothing insulting about the Board's action."

LEGISLATURE IGNORED.

Lane said the Board could have used some more diplomacy and have paid more attention to the wishes of the legislature, instead of ignoring it. It should have allowed Wallach to practice, even if it thought that he was a fake.

Smith's motion to refer was lost.

Kalama said he thought it was a very questionable thing for this Legislature to pass up matters to its successors. He therefore thought it was proper to refer the resolution to some committee.

BOARD MADE MISTAKE.

"I feel there has been a mistake made, and that the Board of Health should not have acted as it did," said Smith. "Still I do not feel like voting for the resolution on account of some of the expressions in it."

Action was finally deferred until 2 p. m.

Coelho said he had a letter from Pinkham which was practically a retraction of the statement that the Health Committee had failed to report on one of his letters of information.

The Health Committee reported on House Bill 206, providing for a home for the male children of leprosy patients, recommending that it be considered with Senate Bill 102, in which the item of $15,000 for the purpose, had been included. Adopted.

Knudsen reported for the conference committee on the bill setting the day for Supervisors' meetings, recommending that it be amended so that the first Wednesday of each month, with the exception of Maui, where the meetings should be held on the first Wednesday of each month. This was adopted.

FAVOR CONDEMNATION BILL.

The Lands Committee reported on Senate Bill 104, providing for the condemnation of public and private lands for rights of way for the distribution and sale of water for reservoir sites, recommending the object of the bill, but stating that there was considerable opposition to the bill, and recommending that it be taken up by the Senate as a Committee of the Whole.

RESOLUTION TO CONGRESS.

McCarthy introduced a concurrent resolution requesting Congress to pass an act to regulate the local territorial and county government, so that overlapping functions were cut out.

Coelho moved to adopt the resolution.

SMITH AGAINST HASTE.

Smith said no hasty action should be taken. No loose proposition making a general request should be sent to Congress. It would be more proper to formulate a plan to be followed, and send that to Congress. If no further consideration was taken he would vote against it.

McCarthy answered that the resolution was clear enough, but he had no objection to have it referred.

Makekani moved to refer it to the County Committee. Carried.

FAVOR WHARFAGE TAX.

The Lands Committee reported on House Bill 19, levying wharfage toll on all freight landed in the Territory, recommending its passage.

SERIAL NUMBER SIXTY-ONE NINETY

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PURE FOOD AND DRUG LAW WE FILED OUR APPLICATION WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND HAVE RECEIVED THE FOLLOWING REPLY:

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
WASHINGTON, MARCH 2, 1907.
BENSON, SMITH AND CO., LTD.,
HONOLULU, T. H.

GENTLEMEN:—I BEG TO ACKNOWLEDGE RECEIPT OF YOUR GUARANTY MADE OUT AND PROPERLY ACKNOWLEDGED BEFORE A NOTARY, AND TO STATE THAT IT HAS BEEN REGULARLY FILED UNDER SERIAL NUMBER 6190.

RESPECTFULLY,
(Signed) JAS. WILSON,
SECRETARY.

Senate Bill 114, authorizing the Maui bond issue, came up for third reading. Kalama moved to cut out the $30,000 item for a road from Nahiku to Kalama, which would reduce the total amount of bonded indebtedness to be incurred from $110,000 to $80,000. LEAVE IT TO BOARD.

Smith said it might be well to pass the bill as it was. The Supervisors did not have to spend or borrow the entire amount.

Coelho said that an irresponsible Board of Supervisors might spend the entire amount against the wishes of the people.

MAUI LOAN KILLED.

"If it is a case of want of confidence in your Board of Supervisors, then you had better kill the bill," said Bishop. Kalama withdrew his motion and the motion to pass the bill was lost by a vote of seven yeas to six nays.

House Bill 226, which covered the same subject, was tabled.

VETO OVERRIDDEN.

The veto of Senate Bill 64, the Maui electric franchise, was taken up. Coelho moved to pass the bill over the veto. Smith said he thought the Governor's position was well taken. The veto was overridden by the following vote:

Ayes—Brown, Chillingworth, Coelho, Hayseiden, Hewitt, Kalama, Knudsen, Lane, McCarthy, Makekani—10.

Noes—Dowsett, Smith, Woods, Gandall and Bishop—5.

Senate Bill 115, repealing the present law relating to pounds, passed third reading.

House Bill 198, the Immigration Act; House Bill 210, reorganizing the Board of Agriculture and Forestry; House Bill 231, relating to the appointment of agents to take acknowledgments; and House Bill 234, defining the income tax period; all passed third reading.

House Bill 211, relating to laundries, passed second reading.

AGAINST DITCH BILL.

Senate Bill 104, providing for the condemnation of land for rights of way for the distribution and sale of water and for reservoir sites; came up for second reading.

Hewitt said the bill delegated the right of eminent domain to private persons and corporations. He moved to indefinitely postpone the bill.

Smith said that there was some merit in the bill. He moved to defer until the Governor's objections. Chillingworth's motion carried.

Bishop continued his argument. He said to collect the toll a staff of inspectors must be maintained on every wharf of the Territory.

Chillingworth said at present the lumber men paid no toll. The small man was stuck but the big fellows were let go. He moved to refer the bill to the Judiciary Committee.

Dowsett said that unless the bill covered every wharf it would hurt the Territory.

CHILLINGWORTH EXPLAINS.

Chillingworth said that the toll should be collected on every ton which entered the channel. It would be a territorial toll on all freight imported into the Territory. It did not refer to inter-island freight. The bill could be amended and made a good one.

Coelho moved to refer it to the Ways and Means Committee.

Bishop said that one of the advantages of the voluntary contribution was that it had always been impossible to get any money from the Legislature for health inspection, but at present the money was always on hand when needed.

The motion to indefinitely postpone was lost, and the bill was referred to the Ways and Means Committee.

RETRACTION SILENCED.

Coelho said he had a retraction of the charge that the Health Committee had suppressed a letter from the Board of Health. He wanted the letter read by the clerk.

Bishop said the Senator was out of order. No official notice had been given the Senate thereof. Bishop did not care what the newspapers said. He had become callous.

The chair, which was at present occupied by Kalama, ruled that Bishop's point was well taken.

A recess was taken until 2 p. m.

a chance to express their feelings on the matter.

There are few bills yet to be considered, so the members are allowed to take as much time as they like to talk on matters of little consequence.

SECOND READING.

House Bill 240, authorizing county treasurers to issue licenses for hunting within their respective counties, passed second reading.

SENATE BILL FAILS.

Senate Bill 9, relating to taxation, educational and judicial districts, failed to pass third reading.

TO REPAY LICENSES.

House Bill 217, authorizing and appropriating for the repayment of licenses for importing goods, wrongfully collected after the Organic Act went into effect, was once more taken up on final reading. Rawlins introduced amendments striking out the items which he believed had no business in the bill. The amendments were adopted. This reduced the total of the bill about $8000. The bill passed, 19 to 7.

The Miscellaneous Committee reported on House Petition 49, relative to the claim of Lucweiko, who asked for $1500 for damages resulting to him for non-fulfillment of an agreement relating to the conveyance of land at the corner of King and Beretania streets. The favorable report of the committee was adopted.

KALEIOPU CHALLENGES SHELTON.

Senate Bill 103, making special appropriations for claims against the Territory, was put on third reading.

Kaleiopu offered an amendment to cover the recommendation of the Miscellaneous Committee to pay Lucweiko $1500.

Sheldon wanted particulars and made a rather caustic criticism of the manner in which the amendment was offered.

Kaleiopu retorted sharply that Sheldon was evidently looking for trouble, and if he wanted a scrap on the floor of the House, he could have it.

The amendment was adopted, together with another offered by Hughes, and the amended bill then passed final reading.

COUNTY BONDS.

The Finance Committee reported favorably on House Bill 232, to provide a sinking fund for the redemption or purchase of bonds issued by any county of the Territory.

SPENT TOO MUCH MONEY.

The same committee recommended the tabling of House Bill 162, making additional appropriation for the completion of the Kailua-Weena school, Honolulu.

"The Legislature of 1905," says the report, "appropriated $25,000, and those in charge of the construction of this work having seen fit to call for plans and specifications for a building, the cost of which is far in excess of the appropriation, your committee does not believe that this House should uphold such a policy." The committee's report was adopted.

RESTORER NOT EXEMPTED.

The Finance Committee also recommended the tabling of House Bill 176, to exempt steamships of the Commercial Cable Company from taxation, for the reason that the steamer is not assessed at present, and the Tax Assessor of the First Division informs us that he cannot assess her, as this is not her home port. Also the Attorney General states that the bill is unconstitutional and against certain prohibitions in the Organic Act, which prohibit the granting of special immunities or privileges through the exemption of property of a particular individual.

Rawlins strenuously opposed the adoption of the report. The opinion of the tax assessor is not conclusive, he thought, and ought not to be considered. It is a question of law.

"Every year," he said, "when the taxation period approaches, the ship of the cable company weighs anchor and goes a pto British Columbia, to escape taxation, and this Territory loses about $6000 every year, just because there is a little doubt as to the right to tax this steamship."

Rawlins made a pointed attack on the bill, which has become a law, to exempt railroads from taxation. "We know what roads were meant in that act," he said. "They were the Hamamua road and its extensions, and the Kaula electric railroad."

Notwithstanding Rawlins' opposition, the report of the committee was
